

I just returned from a 5,400 mile driving vacation. There were many areas where only XM radio was available. I think it would be enhanced by the addition of more weather stations for local weather.